Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association

Japan Game Awards 2014 (JGA 2014), organized by the Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA; Chairman: Shin Unozawa), has selected “BROTHERS – a Tale of Two Sons –” (Developer : Starbreeze Studios; Publisher/Distributor within Japan: Spike Chunsoft Co., Ltd.) as the winner of this year's “Game Designers Award.”

The head judge, Mr. Masahiro Sakurai (President of Sora Ltd.) explains the reasons for selecting this title as follows:

“A sensation where you operate the game by moving two brothers using the right and left sticks simultaneously is refreshing and represents a characteristic of an indie game well. The content demonstrates certainty as a story and affinity as a game system. In addition, this title surpassed other titles, although by a slim margin, with its craftsmanship of the game world atmosphere, which led to winning of this award.”

The Game Designers Award is selected by creators from the perspective of professionals, and honors a highly original and innovative title that will make a mark in the game history. It was established as a part of the Japan Game Awards in 2010, and this year is the fifth year. The Game Designers Award is chosen by top creators who are well-known in Japan including the head judge, Mr. Sakurai.

The Japan Game Awards plans to show the magnetism of a game in the creators' viewpoint through the Game Designers Award.

Please look forward to the future Game Designers Award!
