

The Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Award

Mr. Kou Shibusawa

Japan Game Awards 2021 (JGA 2021), organized by Computer Entertainment Supplier's Association (CESA; Chairman: Hideki Hayakawa), has selected Mr. Kou Shibusawa as the recipient of the 2021 Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Award. The following explains why he was selected for this award.

[Reason for the award]

Mr. Shibusawa has been involved in the development of many games and has been a leader in the computer entertainment industry since its infancy.

He also pioneered and established the historical simulation game genre based on his masterpieces, the "Nobunaga's Ambition" and "ROMANCE OF THE THREE KINGDOMS" series. He has contributed greatly to the development of the Japanese computer entertainment industry as a top creator for 40 years.

In honor of his achievements, he was selected to receive this year's Japan Game Awards - Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Award.

The presentations for the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry Award can be viewed from the Archive of the Japan Game Awards 2021 Presentation Ceremony.

URL: <https://youtu.be/B-Ay9imOzoE>